READY TO RANK

2021

FAQ

When will the bonuses be paid?

All Ready to Rank bonuses will be included in the monthly commissions payout in which the new rank is maintained for the second consecutive month. For example, if a Stylist promotes to a new rank for the first time in January 2021, then achieves the same rank or higher in February, the award will be paid during the February commissions payout in early March.

If I promote to a new rank in July 2021, will I be eligible for the bonus?

Yes, if you promote to a new rank in July, then maintain it in August, you will earn the bonus in the August commissions payout.

Will there be a report in the Virtual Office to track achievers?

You can track achievers in the New Promotions report in the Virtual Office. When viewing a past period, starting with the January 2021 period through July 2021, there will be a new column titled "Held Next Month" that shows whether the new rank was maintained in the following month.

Does the Sponsor get a bonus?

There is only a bonus for the Enroller. You earn the Enroller bonus if someone you personally enrolled achieves a Ready to Rank bonus. The Enroller must be in good standing and active at the time of the payout.

Will I still get the bonus if I promote again to another rank in the following month?

Yes. For example, if you promote to Team Leader in the January period, then you promote to Director in the February period, you will earn the $200 bonus in the February commission run payout for maintaining the Team Leader rank.

What if I double promote in a month? Do I have to achieve the higher rank to get a bonus?

No. If you double promote, and then achieve the lower rank the following month, you will still receive the Ready to Rank bonus for the lower rank. If you maintain the higher rank in the following month, you will receive both bonuses. For instance, if your highest rank was Senior Stylist and you double promote in January to Director - if you are a Team Leader in February, you will earn $200 for maintaining your new Team Leader rank; if you are a Director in February, you'll earn that $200 bonus as well as a $400 bonus for maintaining Director.
